

LENTEN QUIET DAY

TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 2012
FROM 9:30AM-2:00PM

“A QUIET DAY” LED BY LARRY J. PEACOCK

Retreat Leader:
Larry J. Peacock

Executive Director of Rolling Ridge, Larry J. Peacock has led retreats and workshops for groups and churches across the country and is the author of two books and many articles on spirituality. He has pastored United Methodist churches in England, Michigan, and California before moving to New England to give leadership to the renewal of Rolling Ridge as a center of hospitality and program. He is trained as a spiritual director and has taught at Boston University School of Theology.

The Quiet Day is "the perfect place to stop and rest and appreciate Spirit's blessings."

“So far the crocuses have always come up.” That line on a Sister Coriata Kent poster contains the hope of spring. In this transition season from winter grays to crocus purples, we also move through the darkness of Lent to the golden brilliance of Easter.

Come to Rolling Ridge for a day to befriend the journey, to dwell with Lenten metaphors and spring hopes. After a time of meditation and conversation on the themes of the season, prompts will be given for spending the morning in silence. Poetry, mandalas, questions, art projects will be available in the morning. Lunch and community sharing complete the gentle day.

You are welcome to schedule a massage with one of our wellness team after the program. (additional fee applies)
