omen who run with wolves: Chapter 14:

Initiation in the Underground Forest

Thursday, June 20, 2019 9:30am-3:30pm

With Retreat Leader: Lee Ireland

Come learn from feminine wisdom

as we explore Dr. Clarissa Pinkola Estés non-fiction book, Women Who Run with the Wolves: Myths and Stories of the Wild Woman Archetype. Using Jungian psychology and Latinx scholarship, Dr. Estes presents the wolf as a female archetype. With a contemporary feminist lens, her book explores femininity, freedom, and intuition through myths and fairy tales.

During this Day Apart, we will be looking at Chapter 14 in which Dr. Estes unpacks the feminine journey through many stages and invites each of us to look at our own lives and hear the unique invitations to grow through the review.

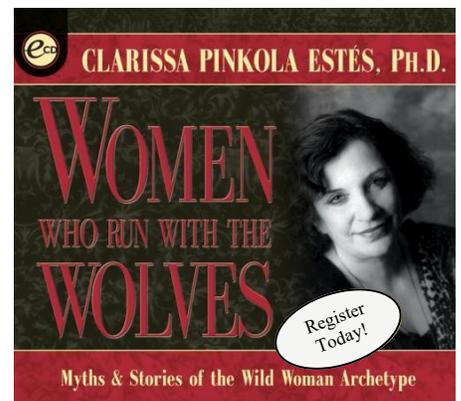

Come and be with sisters who have journeyed through their own challenges and give thanks for the chance to share and listen to deepen their own wells of understanding so we can dispel fears and sorrows and move into sharing deeper love and compassion in our lives.

Lee Ireland

is a UCC pastor and Spiritual Director. She has been working with Estes' book since the early 1990s for her own personal transformation as well as teaching it in various church settings. She has found that her sharings and wisdom help women to realize they're not alone on the journey of life and she encourages them to look through the lens of their spirituality to guide them as they listen to other women's stories; stories that nudge them to do their own inner work and experience healing and gain greater freedom to be true to themselves.

We suggest an arrival time of 9am. Please let us know upon registration if you have dietary restrictions.
